

The Processed Triune God, His Work, and the Result of His Work

Message 4 - Week 2

Tuesday

Isa. 55:1-2 – Footnotes 1¹, 1²

Phil 2:12-13 – Footnotes 12³, 12⁴, 13¹, 13²

- A. We need to learn to receive, regard, respect, and enjoy what God has done and not try to do something for ourselves—John 1:16; 20:22; 1 Cor. 3:21-23; 4:7:
 2. God wants us to stop our doing, be replaced by Christ, and keep away from the taste of anything other than Christ—Gal. 2:20; John 6:57; Isa. 55:1-2; 58:3.
 3. The way to enjoy the unsearchably rich Christ is to take Him as our real Sabbath rest, stopping ourselves with our living, doing, and activity, and receive Him as our life, person, and replacement; then we will experience Christ as the power of resurrection to be transformed and to soar in the heavens far above every earthly frustration—Matt. 11:28-30; Isa. 40:28-31.

This does not only apply in church meetings and in church activities, it is related to everything that we do in our activities. We need to learn to stop, especially us from the Spanish background because we tend to move fast. In our emotions, many times we react fast. We need to learn to stop and come back to the Lord.

- B. We need to know what the Triune God has done for us and highly regard the work of the Father, the Son, and the Spirit—Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14:

Why? He will do it. Philippians 2:12-13 says that we need to work out our own salvation. We think many times that we need to do something, but Paul says that it is God who operates in us. He produces the willing and the working. What is our labour? Turning to the Lord; we need to stop ourselves and turn to the Lord.
